

Abby Stringer

To my love

that fucking monster
revealed his vile face again he came to me like he always does go on devour it gorge on the pathetic carcass scurry away my vulture friends pretend you don't know me save yourself, I am the sacrificial victim no soul left for this feeding the numbness suffocates me

my flavor does not suit such a delicate palate I was left for too long and became acidic

revealed her vile face again staring back at me her discarded lifeless eyes
