I am just passing through town to Elsewhere an interior subjective function the Susquehanna “a very complicated product” lined with ancient trees plastic detritus three spare tires a fisherman casts his line as mine’s already been in the stream three years just passing through manufactured continuity the new development sinking like mottled Yuengling bottles dropped into the hill
