"They quite literally can watch your ideas form as you type."

— Edward Snowden.

From caves to telephone booths

in the flick of a dial

but we still think like weeds.

Don't touch the antennae

with invisible words

or unspooled coils.

The typewriter knows your name, the lightbulb's got your number — speak clearly into the telescope please:

your insignificance is now on file.

The headphones have erased the umbilical —
your thoughts
have been prorated.

Totalitarians
are tiny people.

The political is subliminal,
the personal is apocryphal.

The adjusted
is contrasted:
1,000,000,000 watts
ingeminated.

Insert coin for weight age fortune —
the microphones
are in the food.

Retroactive got intercepted — your face is a fraction, refrigerated.

Brains in bottles:

no deposit no return.

Love the lens

for acknowledging

you.

BRICOLAGE ROCOCO

Roll of silent reduction is living w/ time zoom —

decommissioned molecules, decompensating patterns affix stimulus to gas tension.

I got my reasons.

Destablize the amaranthine

w/ embedded unsubstantiated — serotonergic displacement, genetic discrepancy

acerbates subsequent extrinsic.

Shortwave of tensile narrative misadapts patented disquisition — retroactive capitalization of collateral alterity superannuates sentience, vacuum-packed.

Your name here.

Deregulate the universe

w/ unabridged appurtenance — interpolated probabilities, requisitioned corollaries intromit neurologic octaves.

Affix unsubstantiated time

w/ subsequent debunking reduction — sentience tension,

collateral patterns

plagiarize genetic capitalization.
