There is a Power

Lone passenger in back of a white stre-tch limousine that is on fire.
Nobody is driving, the car cruises at a c r a w l a downward spiral funneling into oblivion.
I look out the window with empty eye sockets.
The scenery changes, ruins of city towering vegetation rising out of the disturbed earth dwarfing every building like forgotten tombstones.
My lips, nose and ears fall away my face feels very thin.
I wither, crack, not even a husk,
only a pile of bone dust calcifying my clothes.
A man in a dark suit wearing a button that reads
'I LOVE MY FUCKING JOB' waiting at the bottom of the d
