Slipstream

Crazy golf is not crazy
Fun runs are not fun

There is a thorn in my side
There is also a thorn in the side of roses

I have poetry in my blood but I wish more of it would end up on the page.

Silly Boffins and the Wisdom Quotient

We can't fight an enemy from behind a desk.
We are heading into the wolf's lair.

We don't control the skies anymore.
Operation paper clip is just a Band-Aid.

is all we have simply our voice?
is nothing all we can do legally?

It is getting hard to tell if you are the best friend I actually have.
You infrequently throw your toys out of the pram. I hate that.

to optimize the emotional moods of themselves and their collective,
to empathize with self and others,
to imagine solutions for personal and collective problems that do not do violence to self or others,
to awaken and inspire the self and others.

This can't go on, but if it does no one will be the wiser.
Everything we encounter is still as mad as a box of frogs.
