Rape intoxication,
they took our souls
put a price on our heads, numbered the demon 666 on the backs of grey matter.

Cat of IX tails scratching pills into skin, black & blue & white & red bleeding us dry in the street putting corpses in our organs, culling the tribe of weaker Mn pulling teeth from the heathen.

Wo(Mn) hosted the children of a damned species, dreaming rocketship reality licking the moons of Jupiter & Saturn, till Earth shed her tears dust caught in the winds of tribulation.

Chaos reflection of self-destructing anxiety & snapping sanity,
played dice with the bones of our ancestors laughing at plastic emotions spat into the mouths of suited whores.

Slithering (Fe)male genitalia across the rivers of blood drowning babies in chemical solution, bubbling skin & white smoke into our lungs, we inhaled a generation, getting high off the radio waves of historic extinction.

Would you even remember the trail of destruction I left in our grave dear.

Down(Stream)

-State fed pills
like petulant pearls eaten by swine
destroy my body resurrect
the beast sniffing the blood swimming down the cracks of fragile spider veins splintering in the greatest of minds

-Stop

-Fracture of indifference sexual inhibition of a most sinister optimism into dens of liquid nightmare slithering down your throat choking the monsters from inside the catacombs of your soul

-I saw Saint Peter hang himself
from the gates of heaven his body swaying in ticking motions, counting the seconds till eternity ended

-Never good, never bad is along the inside of dark shell, slippery ghost caught in your stomach vomiting the wretched
holy spirit fear

-Tongues of fire dancing down the aisle to satanic notes floating along the poison at the bottom of the bottle placed empty at my feet so I tore perfection from bloodline tinkering in the sand of a thousand empires laid waste by love-
