Crayfish Calico

A tea set for picnics is buried in muddy shore
From the teapot at the bottom of the swamp
Sweet tea is springing up

I am here

I am here

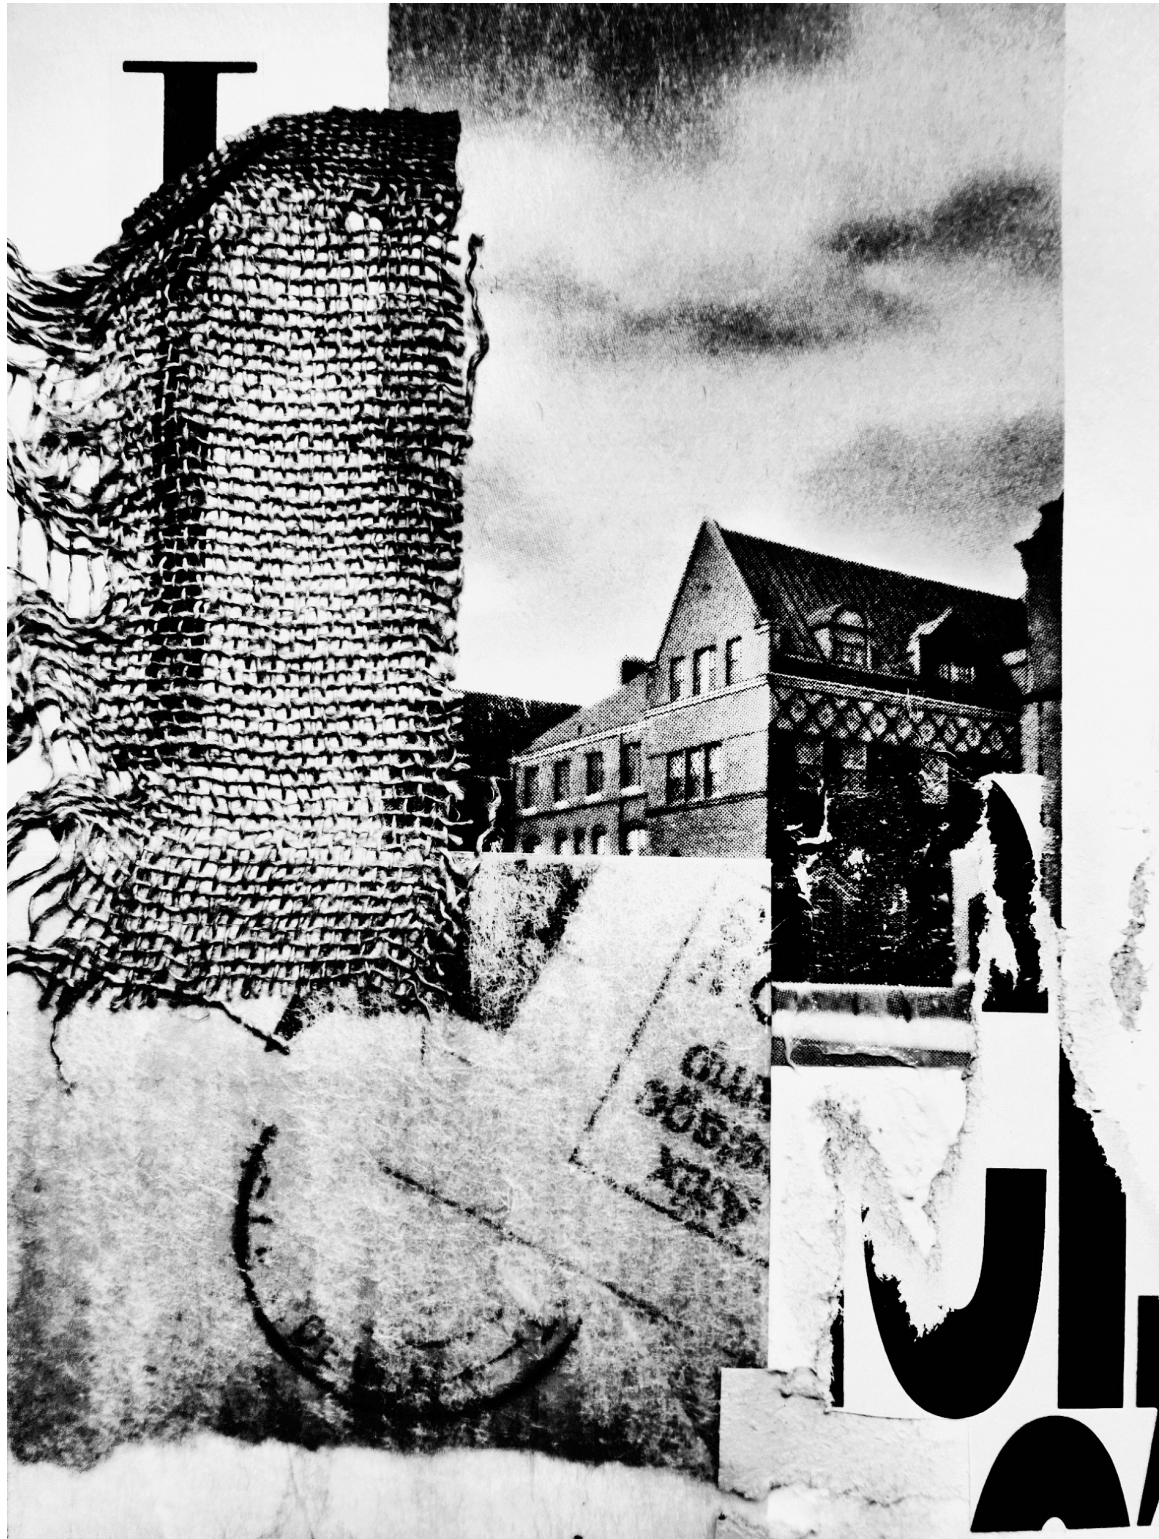

I am here

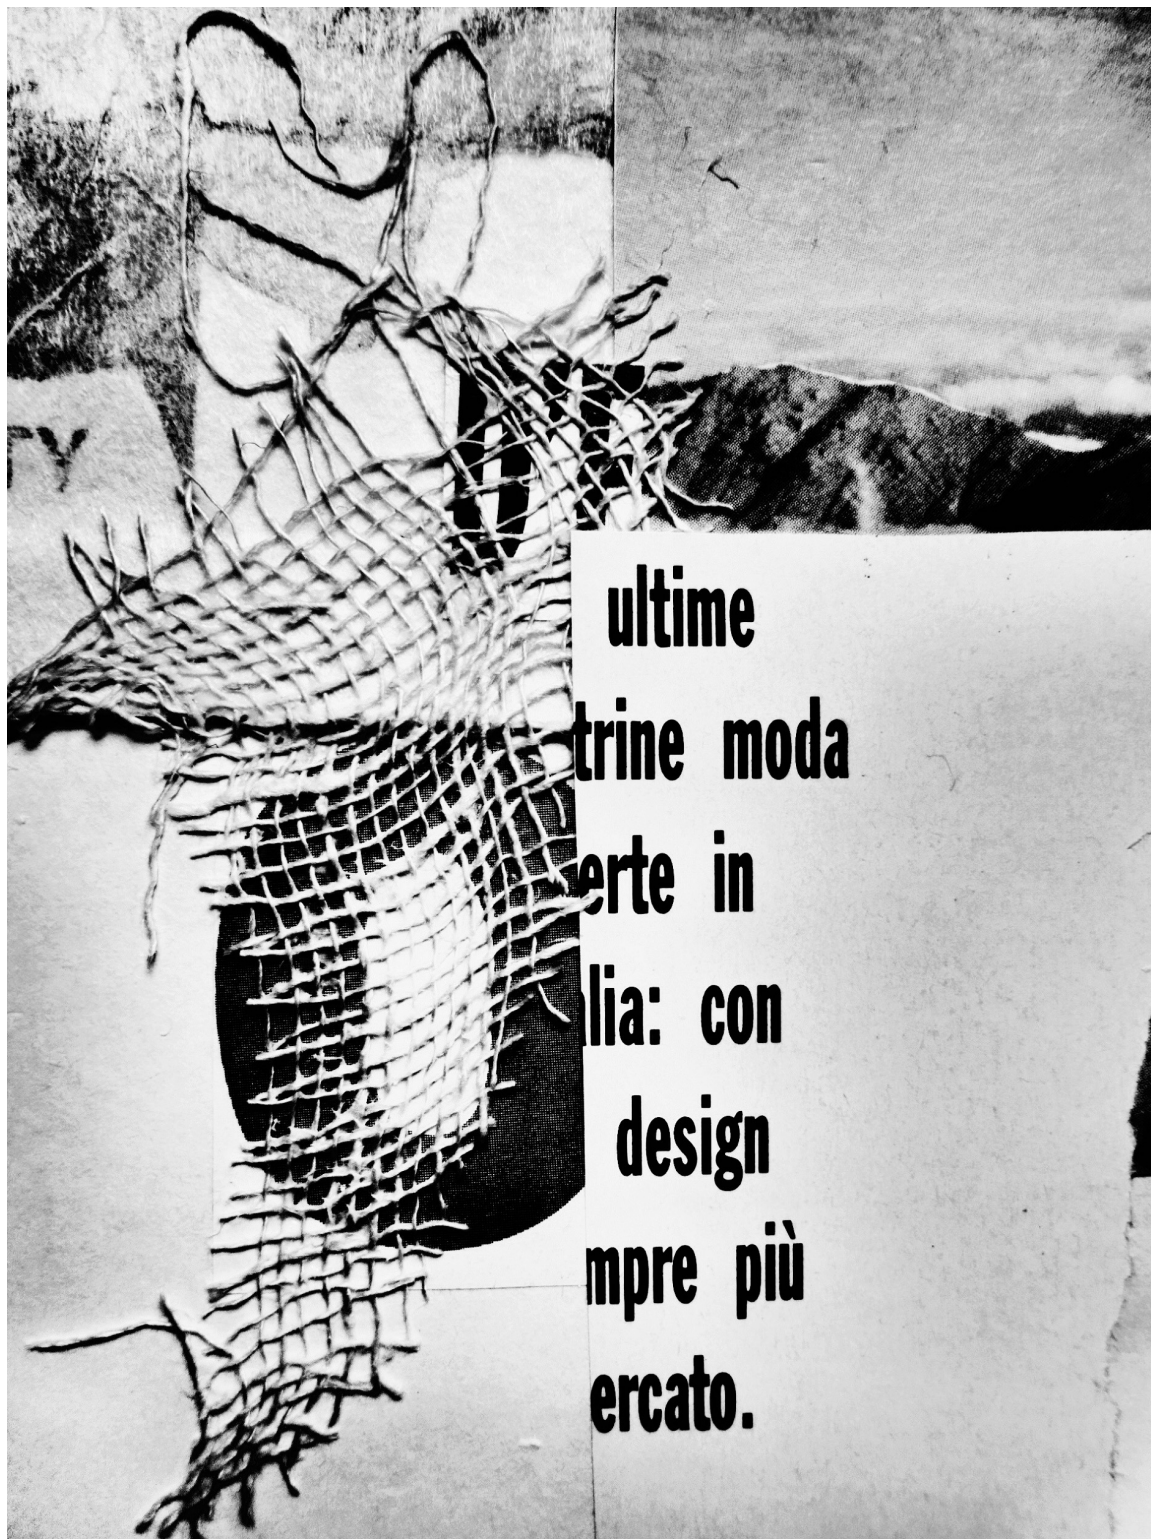

Crayfish is intoxicated a taste of tea
Waving his scissors of red and blue color
A pattern paper of sleeveless dress is floating
The surface of calico in red and blue
Buds of lotus flowers are split
White petals melt into water
With a sweet scent

Spring is here

Spring is here

Spring is here
